

Facilitating Open Access for Publications

The Library and Research Services at Queen's University

Karina McInnis: Executive Director, University Research Services
karina.mcinnis@queensu.ca

Sharon Murphy: Head Academic Services, Library murphys@queensu.ca

We will be talking about ...

- ❖ Collaborative Structures
- ❖ Collaborative Initiatives
- ❖ Collaborative Events

Structures

Strategic Agenda

- ❖ Background/Environmental Scan
- ❖ Opportunities
- ❖ Risks
- ❖ Organizational Implications
- ❖ Next Steps

Structures

Scholarly Communications
Working Group

Research Data
Working Group

Membership

Mandates

Activities

Structures

www.queensu.ca/strategicplanning/research

“Queen’s researchers must be able to participate fully in the emerging e-research paradigm, which encompasses all digital research creation and output. Working together and in collaboration with regional and national groups, the Library and IT Services are working towards a seamless distributed infrastructure of services for the deposit and repurposing of data.”

“Explore evolving emphasis on Open Access and new income models for peer-reviewed scholarly publishing.”

Initiatives

Scholarly Publishing

- ❖ Qspace
- ❖ Mediated deposit
- ❖ Bulk uploads

Initiatives

Using Electronic Research Administration Tools & Training to Promote Open Access Compliance

Tools for Research at Queen's

TRAOQ

- ❖ Scholarly Librarian involvement
- ❖ Enabling Compliance & Reducing Admin Burden
 - “Flag”/notification dates of publication acceptance
 - Automated prompt to upload publication
 - Automated “push” to Queen’s institutional repository, QSpace
- ❖ Training Sessions: F180, QSpace, URS

Events

Open Access Week 2015

“Open Access: the Good, the Bad and the Unknown”

“Open Access: What it is, What it Means for you & Why You Should Care”

Moderated Session

Impact & Compliance

- Reducing Administrative Burden
- Shared Services & Partnership → Effective Use of Resources
- Maximising Impact of Public Funds for Research (library.queensu.ca/scholcomm/qspace/faqs)
- Open Access Citation Advantage Service, OpCit Project (sparceurope.org/oaca_list/)

Questions

